

Kennith Franklin and his wife Linda have four children and seven grandchildren.

After spending seventeen years teaching, six years in secondary education and eleven years in college, and retiring from Southwestern Bell Corporation/ AT&T after twenty-two years in Information Services, he currently is an adjunct faculty member teaching mathematics courses at OSU-OKC.

He has a passion for Prevention of Child Abuse and has served for four years on the National Exchange Club Foundation for Prevention of Child Abuse. Two of those years were served as President of the Foundation.

He has served for seventeen years on the Exchange Club Center for Prevention of Child Abuse in Oklahoma City and served as President of the Board for seven years.

He enjoys sitting on the front porch with his wife and relaxing – gardening – golf – time with his grandchildren and teaching adult classes at church.

Characteristics that are important to him – Christian, Husband, Father, Grandpa, Friend.